

Privacy Statement for OxyBooster - Exercising with Oxygen

This privacy statement outlines how OxyBooster collects, uses, and shares personal information when participants engage in the "Exercising with Oxygen" program.

Collected Information:

We collect personal information that participants voluntarily provide, such as names, contact details, health information, and payment details. This information is collected to facilitate participation in the program and ensure the safety and well-being of participants.

Use of Information:

The collected information is used for the following purposes:

1. To facilitate and manage participation in the program.
2. To understand health information and provide customized guidance.
3. To process payments and conduct financial transactions.
4. For internal administrative purposes and improvement of our services.

Sharing of Information:

We do not share personal information with third parties, except in the following cases:

1. With explicit consent from the participant.
2. To comply with legal obligations.
3. With qualified medical personnel for the safety of participants.

Security:

We take reasonable measures to protect personal information from loss, theft, unauthorized access, and misuse.

Retention Period:

Personal information is retained for the period necessary for the purpose for which it was collected, unless a longer retention period is legally required.

Rights of Participants:

Participants have the right to request access to their personal information, correct it, delete it, or object to its use. Requests can be made to OxyBooster.

Changes to the Privacy Statement:

This privacy statement may be amended to comply with legal requirements or improve our services. Changes will be published on this page.

By participating in the "Exercising with Oxygen" program, the participant agrees to the collection and use of their personal information as described in this privacy statement. It is important for participants to read and understand this privacy statement before participating in the program.